January 1, 2012

Congratulations to Darla Sneath.

She was named 2011
Employee of the Year!

Cindi Knipp read the following when making the announcement at the RCH Christmas Party: "This year I am honored to introduce our Employee of the Year for 2011. This employee has worked for RCH since 2008 and always brings a smile to your face no matter what time of the day you see her. She is always on top of things and knows how to get the job done!

According to some of the ABCD awards she has received this past year, she's always willing to stay past her usual clock out time to assist with something that might need immediate attention. Other awards state that she'll stop anything she's doing to help another person. She is highly appreciated and does a great job! She's organized and is very conscientious about all of her job duties.

A recent comment from a nurse states that, 'We are always impressed with how early she gets to work and gets started with her work. She is always on the ball and goes out of her way for others.'

I am very pleased to present the 2011 Employee of the Year Award to Darla Sneath!"

Congratulations Darla!

There were lots of smiles and surprises at this year's RCH Christmas party.

2011 RCH Christmas Party

The K of C Hall was full this year as RCH celebrated their annual Christmas party. Employees, volunteers and their guests were in for a real treat. The delicious dinner was catered by Cheryl & Rusty Hrabe and their staff. The Employee of the Year was then announced followed by the service awards. This year the committee members requested additional cash to purchase Christmas gifts for the party. The administration generously agreed to the request and allowing us to offer 35 nice gifts to chose from. Every person who attended the party was given 10 chances to win whatever gifts they wanted. Then special guests Santa Claus and Bob the Elf drew names for each of the gifts.

The following employees were recognized at the Christmas party for their years of service.
